PLAINTIFFS' MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF THEIR MOTION FOR TRANSFER OF ACTIONS TO THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA AND FOR CONSOLIDATED OR COORDINATED PRETRIAL PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §1407

Plaintiff Dawn Howe in the Central District of California action, Howe v. Menu Foods Limited, et al, No. CV07-02060 GHK (AJWx), plaintiffs Dennis Lee Townsend and Glenna Townsend in the Central District of California action, Townsend v. Menu Foods Limited, et al, No. ED CV07-398 GHK (AJWx), plaintiff Alexander Nunez in the District of New Jersey action, Nunez v. Menu Foods Limited, No. 07CV1490 (NLH), plaintiff Richard Chamberlain in the Central District Court of California action, Chamberlain v. Nestle S.A., No. CV07-2476 FMG (SSx), and plaintiff Mark Golding in the District of New Jersey action, Golding v. Menu Foods Limited, et al, No. 07CV01521 (NLH), (collectively, "Plaintiffs"), respectfully move the Panel for an Order pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1407 to transfer the pending cases identified in the schedule of actions filed concurrently, as well as any cases subsequently filed involving similar facts or claims, to the United States District Court for the Central District of California, and to consolidate and coordinate the cases for pretrial proceedings before the Honorable George H. King, to whom the low numbered case is assigned in the Central District of California.

I. BACKGROUND

Defendants Menu Foods and Nestle Purina, as well as other pet food manufacturers, (collectively, the "Pet Food Manufacturers"), produced and sold contaminated dog and cat food which caused serious illness and death to household pets. Many of the pet foods manufactured by the Pet Food Manufacturers and sold by retailers such as Wal-Mart, Petsmart, and Giant, are part of nationwide recalls, which lists continue to grow. See Exhibits A-I. The piecemeal, ever-expanding recalls leave concerned pet owners confused and uncertain of which products are safe for their pets to consume.

Plaintiffs brought their respective actions on behalf of all persons in the United States who purchased contaminated dog or cat food manufactured by Menu Foods and/or Nestle Purina, which were recalled or will be recalled. These products caused serious illness or death in many pets, including Plaintiffs' pets.

At least sixty-four cases, to the best of Plaintiffs' knowledge, have been filed against the Pet Food Manufacturers, in both state and federal courts, alleging similar causes of actions and seeking similar relief as Plaintiffs. The related actions all arise from the same or similar nucleus of operative facts as Plaintiffs' cases. Each action will involve substantially similar discovery, with the same or similar documents and witnesses. Discovery has not commenced in Plaintiffs' cases or any of the related actions.

Since these cases require same or similar questions of law and facts to be determined by a court of law, prompt action by the Panel to transfer and consolidate these actions will promote their just and efficient prosecution and judicial economy and serve the convenience of the parties.

II. ARGUMENT

A. Transfer And Consolidation Of All Actions Is Appropriate Under 28 U.S.C. §1407

28 U.S.C. §1407 provides for transfer of actions to one district for coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings where actions pending in different districts involve one or more common questions of fact. 28 U.S.C. §1407(a). The Panel authorizes consolidation where transfers will promote the convenience of the parties and witnesses, and the just and efficient conduct of the action. Id. The purpose of the multidistrict litigation process is to “eliminate the potential for contemporaneous pretrial rulings by coordinate district and appellate courts in multidistrict related civil actions.” In re Multidistrict Private Civ. Treble Damage Litig., 298 F. Supp. 484, 491-92 (J.P.M.L. 1968). Consolidation is especially important in class actions where the “potential for conflicting, disorderly, chaotic” action is greatest. Id. at 493. Transfer of related actions to a single district for pretrial proceedings avoids conflicting pretrial discovery and ensures uniform and expeditious treatment in the pretrial procedures. In re Phenylpropanolamine (PPA) Prods. Liab. Litig., 460 F.3d 1217, 1230 (9th Cir. 2006).

Transfer is appropriate here because many common questions of fact and law exist. The cases listed in the schedule of actions (the “Actions”) all arise from the same or similar nucleus of operative facts, and each seeks determination of, among other things:

1. whether the contaminated pet foods manufactured by the Pet Food Manufacturers were materially defective in design and formulation;
2. whether the Pet Food Manufacturers failed to properly test the contaminated pet food products prior to market entry;
3. whether the Pet Food Manufacturers negligently, recklessly, or intentionally delayed initiating recalls of the contaminated pet foods;

4. whether the Pet Food Manufacturers breached their duty of care to Plaintiffs and other Class members;
5. whether the Pet Food Manufacturers breached any contract or warranty, express or implied, relating to their sale of contaminated pet food;
6. whether the contaminated pet food manufactured by the Pet Food Manufacturers caused Plaintiffs' and other Class members' pets to fall ill or die;
7. whether the Pet Food Manufacturers were unjustly enriched as a result of their wrongful conduct;
8. whether Plaintiffs and other Class members are entitled to compensatory damages; and
9. whether Plaintiffs and other Class members are entitled to punitive damages.

Determination of these and other commons issues in a single district will benefit the parties and witnesses, and promote the just and efficient prosecution of the Actions. Without transfer and consolidation of the Actions, the danger of inconsistent rulings exists, and judicial inefficiency, overlapping discovery, and unnecessary expense will certainly result. Transfer and coordination is especially appropriate as formal discovery has not yet commenced in any of the Actions. As such, transfer and consolidation of the Actions to a single district is appropriate for the just and efficient prosecution of the actions and the convenience of the parties and witnesses.

B. The Central District of California Is The Appropriate Forum For Transfer And Consolidation

In determining the most appropriate transferee forum, the Panel will consider, among other things, the number of actions pending in the district, the location of witnesses and documents, the stage of pretrial proceedings, whether a related government investigation or action is pending, whether the district is in an accessible metropolitan area, the status of the civil docket, and the experience of the transferee judge in handling multidistrict litigation. See e.g., In re Educ. Testing Serv. Plt 7-12 Test Scoring Litig., 350 F. Supp. 2d 1363, 1365 (J.P.M.L. 2004) (Panel found district appropriate where four of thirteen actions were already pending in the district, the district provided an accessible, metropolitan location, the district had favorable caseload conditions, and the judge had experience managing multidistrict litigation); In re Wheat Farmers Antitrust Class Action Litig., 366 F. Supp. 1087, 1088 (J.P.M.L. 1973) (Panel considered the conveniences of the parties and witnesses, location of relevant documents, stage of pretrial proceedings, and the status of civil dockets); In re Peruvian Road Litig., 380 F. Supp. 796, 798 (J.P.M.L. 1974) (while both districts were appropriate, Panel chose the District of Idaho because of the judge's familiarity with the issues raised by defendants and because of the significantly lighter civil action docket of that court); In re Tri-State Crematory Litig., 206 F. Supp. 2d 1376, 1378 (J.P.M.L. 2002) (in selecting the transferee court, the Panel considered the location of the crematory central to the allegations, the criminal investigation, the likely location of relevant documents, witnesses and other evidence, and where the actions were filed); In re Foundry Resins Antitrust Litig., 342 F. Supp. 2d 1346, 1347 (J.P.M.L. 2004) (Panel considered, among other things, the presence of a government investigation in choosing the transferee district).

Transfer of the Actions to the Central District of California for consolidated pretrial proceedings is appropriate here because transfer will serve the convenience of the parties and promote just and efficient conduct of the Actions. The Central District of California is particularly appropriate because a number of the Actions are currently pending in this district.

Defendant Nestle's U.S. headquarters, as well as manufacturer Nutro Products, Inc., which has been named a defendant in other Actions, are located in this district. Thus, witnesses and documents are likely located in this district as well. Additionally, the Food and Drug Administration, U.S. Department of Agriculture, and California Department of Health Services are conducting investigations into a hog farm confirmed to have received contaminated pet food scraps in California. Consolidation of the Actions in the Central District of California will thus aid in the coordination of efforts likely to occur between the government investigations and the Actions. The Central District of California also provides a metropolitan location, easily accessible to all parties and witnesses, both domestic and foreign.

The Central District of California is also appropriate because of the status of its civil dockets. The median time to disposition in the Central District was 7.2 months last fiscal year, while the District of New Jersey, where some similar Actions have been filed, averaged 8.2 months. See Exhibits J-K. The median time to trial in the Central District of California was 21.3 months, while it took nearly a year longer in the District of New Jersey, at approximately 33.0 months. Because a case is more likely to be expeditiously handled in the Central District of California, transfer of the Actions to the Central District is appropriate.

The Honorable George H. King, to whom the low numbered case, Sexton v. Menu Foods, is assigned, has considerable experience managing class actions and complex litigation matters. See, e.g., In re Nat'l Golf Props. Secs. Litig., No.: CV 02-1383-GHK (complex securities class action) and Dagher v. Saudi Ref., Inc., No. CV-99-06114(GHK) (complex anti-trust action). Judge King's twelve years of experience on the bench and reputation for expeditious handling of matters makes the Central District of California as the forum for transfer and consolidation for pretrial proceedings all the more appropriate. On the other hand, the Honorable Noel L. Hillman, to whom the low numbered case in the District of New Jersey is assigned, has been on the bench for less than a year, and thus, does not have the experience and expertise Judge King has amassed over the years in presiding over complex matters such as this one.

III. CONCLUSION

At least sixty-four cases have been filed against Menu Foods, Nestle Purina, and other pet food manufacturers alleging defendants manufactured and sold contaminated pet food products which caused illness or death in household pets. These Actions all arise out of the same or similar nucleus of operative facts, allege similar claims, and seek similar relief. Without transfer and coordination of the Actions, judicial inefficiency, overlapping discovery, and unnecessary expense will certainly result, and the danger of inconsistent rulings may arise. As such, plaintiffs Howe, the Townsends, Nunez, Chamberlain, and Golding respectfully request transfer and consolidation or coordination of the Actions to the Central District of California, in order to promote just and efficient prosecution of the Actions and serve the convenience of the parties.

TORONTO, ONTARIO--(CCNMatthews - March 16, 2007) -

NOT FOR RELEASE OVER US NEWSWIRE SERVICES

Attention Business/Financial Editors

Menu Foods Income Fund (the "Fund") (TSX:MEW.UN) today announced the precautionary recall of a portion of the dog and cat food it manufactured between December 3, 2006 and March 6, 2007. The recall is limited to "cuts and gravy" style pet food in cans and pouches manufactured at two of the Fund's United States facilities. These products are both manufactured and sold under private-label and are contract-manufactured for some national brands.

Over the past several days, the Fund has received feedback in the United States (none in Canada) raising concerns about pet food manufactured since early December, and its impact on the renal health of the pets consuming the products. Shortly after receipt of the first complaint, the Fund initiated a substantial battery of technical tests, conducted by both internal and external specialists, but has failed to identify any issues with the products in question. The Fund has, however, discovered that timing of the production associated with these complaints, coincides with the introduction of an ingredient from a new supplier. The Fund stopped using this ingredient shortly after this discovery and production since then has been undertaken using ingredients from another source.

At the same time, the Fund's largest customer, for which it manufactures on a contract basis, received a small number of consumer complaints and has initiated its own recall. Furthermore, for the time being, the customer has put future orders for cuts and gravy products on hold. This customer's cuts and gravy purchases in 2006 represented approximately 11% of the Fund's annual revenue.

"We take these complaints very seriously and, while we are still looking for a specific cause, we are acting to err on the side of caution" said Paul K. Henderson, President and CEO, Menu Foods. "We will do whatever is necessary to ensure that our products maintain the very highest quality standards."

While the number of complaints has been relatively small, Menu is taking this proactive step out of an abundance of caution, because the health and well-being of pets is paramount to the Fund.

In addition to changing suppliers, for production after March 6, the Fund has increased testing of all raw materials and finished goods. It is also working closely with regulatory authorities and its customers to learn more and will take whatever additional actions are appropriate. The Fund estimates that based on currently available information, this recall could cost between $30 million and $40 million, which will be financed from a combination of internally generated cash flow and bank credit facilities. Furthermore, the Fund is aggressively producing product, utilizing a different supplier for the ingredient in question, to replenish customers as quickly as possible.

In order to determine whether cat and dog food in their possession is subject to recall, consumers should refer to the list of brand names ("listed products") at www.menufoods.com/recall. This will be available by 6 a.m. Saturday March 17, 2007. Products not identified on the website can continue to be used.

Menu is the leading North American private-label/contract manufacturer of wet pet food products sold by supermarket retailers, mass merchandisers, pet specialty retailers and other retail and wholesale outlets. In 2006, the Fund produced more than one billion containers.

TORONTO, ONTARIO--(CCNMatthews - March 24, 2007) - As a result of reports from the FDA and various media outlets that some recalled lots of "cuts and gravy" style wet pet food remain on store shelves, Menu Foods has asked all retail outlets to immediately remove all impacted varieties of wet pet food posted at www.menufoods.com , regardless of the date code.

Menu Foods remains concerned that consumers are able to purchase recalled items.

There is no known risk from items not listed on the recall list but an abundance of caution is called for in this situation. FDA has been apprised of this action.

Menu Foods voluntarily recalls additional pet food made with ChemNutra wheat gluten

TORONTO, April 10 /PRNewswire/ - Prompted by reports from the US Food and Drug Administration as to the presence of melamine in cans of cuts and gravy pet food produced in Menu Foods' Canadian production facility, Menu Foods undertook an accounting of all recalled wheat gluten supplied by ChemNutra Inc. to Menu Foods in the United States.

As the result of that review, Menu Foods has identified a single interplant transfer of the ChemNutra supplied wheat gluten, shipped from Menu Foods' plant in Emporia, Kansas, to its plant in Streetsville, Ontario. This wheat gluten was subsequently used in the production of pet food in December, 2006 and January, 2007, which is being recalled by Menu Foods.

The new varieties in the United States and Canada have been added to the recall list. The latest recall group is listed below, and a complete list of recalled products, including the new items can be reviewed at <http://www.menufoods.com>.

Attention Business/Financial Editors

Menu Foods has previously recalled wet cat and dog food produced with adulterated wheat gluten supplied by ChemNutra Inc. Over the past several days, Menu Foods continued a detailed analysis of production records at its Emporia, Kansas, plant as part of the US Food and Drug Administration's ongoing investigation of this adulterated wheat gluten. As a result of this work, Menu Foods advises the public:

- One additional item has been added to the recall list and is shown below
- Two additional production dates of eight varieties of pet food have been added to the recall list. These eight varieties of pet food had previously been withdrawn from the market and should already be off the retailer shelves.

Purina to voluntarily withdraw Mighty Dog® 5.3 ounce pouch products in response to Menu Foods recall

No other Purina products affected

St. Louis, Missouri, March 16, 2007

Nestlé Purina PetCare Company today announced that as a precautionary measure, it is voluntarily withdrawing its 5.3 ounce Mighty Dog® brand pouch products that were produced by Menu Foods, Inc. from December 3, 2006 through March 14, 2007. This withdrawal is in response to the recall initiated earlier today by Menu Foods, a contract manufacturer that does limited business with Purina as well as with other pet food manufacturers. Only Mighty Dog 5.3 ounce pouch products are being withdrawn by Nestlé Purina, including those pouches contained in multi-packs. Importantly, no Mighty Dog canned products, or any other Purina products are affected by Menu's recall.

While Purina has no indication of any product quality or safety issues specifically related to our Mighty Dog pouch products, Purina is taking this proactive action out of an abundance of caution in response to the Menu Foods recall.

Consumers who have the indicated Mighty Dog 5.3 ounce pouch products should discontinue feeding them to their dogs and can receive the full replacement value of the withdrawn products by calling 1-800-551-7392.

The Mighty Dog pouch products and pouches in multi-pack cartons have code dates of 6312 through 7073, followed by the plant code 1798. This information should be checked on the bottom or back panel of the individual pouches. Specifically, if the code following the "Use By" date begins with four numbers from 6312 to 7073 followed by the plant code 1798, then the pouch is included in this voluntary withdrawal.

Purina regrets any inconvenience and apologizes for any concern caused by this product withdrawal. The Company will continue to take any and all actions necessary to ensure the quality and safety of our products.

 On April 5, 2007, Menu Foods amended its recall to include all cuts and gravy pet food products produced by Menu from November 8, 2006, through March 14, 2007. This amendment does not affect Nestlé Purina's voluntary recall of Mighty Dog brand pouch products, as directions previously given by Nestlé Purina were to remove all Mighty Dog pouch products from retail shelf, regardless of date code.

Alpo® Brand Prime Cuts In Gravy Canned Dog Food Voluntary Nationwide Recall

No Dry Purina Products Involved

St. Louis, Missouri, March 30, 2007

Nestlé Purina PetCare Company today announced it is voluntarily recalling all sizes and varieties of its ALPO® Prime Cuts in Gravy wet dog food with specific date codes. The Company is taking this voluntary action after learning today that wheat gluten containing melamine, a substance not approved for use in food, was provided to Purina by the same company that also supplied Menu Foods. The contamination occurred in a limited production quantity at only one of Purina's 17 pet food manufacturing facilities.

Earlier today the FDA announced the finding of melamine in products related to the March 16 Menu Foods recall, and advised Purina of the source of the contaminated supply. Purina then determined that it had received some quantity from the suspect supplier. The company proactively notified the FDA and immediately began this recall process.

Purina is confident that the contaminated wheat gluten has been isolated to this limited production quantity of ALPO Prime Cuts canned products.

The recalled 13.2-ounce and 22-ounce ALPO Prime Cuts cans and 6-, 8-, 12- and 24-can ALPO Prime Cuts Variety Packs have four-digit code dates of 7037 through 7053, followed by the plant code 1159. Those codes follow a "Best Before Feb. 2009" date. This information should be checked on the bottom of the can or the top or side of the multi-pack cartons.

Purina's 5.3-ounce Mighty Dog® pouch products, manufactured by Menu Foods, were previously withdrawn from the market as a precaution on March 16 as part of the Menu Foods recall. ONLY Mighty Dog pouch products and specific date codes of ALPO Prime Cuts canned dog food are being recalled.

Importantly, no Purina brand dry pet foods are affected by the recall - including ALPO Prime Cuts dry. In addition, no other Purina dog food products, no Purina cat food products, Purina treat products or Purina Veterinary Diet products are included in this recall, nor have been impacted by the contaminated wheat gluten supply.

Consumers should immediately stop feeding ALPO Prime Cuts products with the above-listed date codes to their dogs and consult with a veterinarian if they have any health concerns with their pet.

Purina guarantees all of its products, and consumers can receive the full replacement value of the recalled products. Consumers can visit us at www.purina.com or call 1-800-218-5898 to receive more information.

Purina is fully cooperating with the FDA and made the decision to voluntarily recall this product in consultation with the FDA.

At Purina, nothing is more important to us than the health and well-being of the pets whose nutrition has been entrusted to us by their owners, and we deeply regret this unfortunate situation. We will continue to take any and all actions necessary to ensure the quality and safety of our products.

 Due to a product name change in early 2007, this voluntary recall also covers one item with the same date code labeled as ALPO® Prime Entrees in Gravy with Chicken, Rotini Pasta & Vegetables.
